Business News

Obama backs closing Gitmo, while Cheney defends it
43 mins ago - President Barack Obama fought Thursday to retake command of the emotional debate over closing Guantanamo, denouncing "fear-mongering" by political opponents and insisting that maximum-security prisons in the U.S. can safely house dangerous terror suspects transferred from Cuba. In a unique bit of Washington theater, former Vice President Dick Cheney delivered his own address just one minute later, defending the Bush administration's creation of the prison camp as vigorously as Obama denounced it.

Obama: 50 Gitmo detainees cleared for transfer
13 mins ago - Forty-eight terror suspects currently held at Guantanamo Bay are waiting to be released to other nations, the Obama administration said Thursday. The detainees are among 50 detainees whose cases President Barack Obama said Thursday have already been reviewed. The detainees would be the first to be released to other nations under the Obama administration's effort to empty the Cuba-based prison without bringing all its inmates to the United States.

AIG's Liddy to step down when new executives found
26 mins ago - American International Group Inc. on Thursday said its chairman and chief executive plans to step down when a search for replacements is complete.

NYC terror case latest of many homegrown plots
17 mins ago - The four men were ex-convicts who envisioned themselves as holy warriors, ambitious enough to concoct a plot to blow up synagogues and military planes, authorities said. But they were amateurs every step of the way. They had trouble finding guns and bought cameras at Wal-Mart to photograph their targets. One was a convicted purse snatcher, another smoked marijuana the day the plot was to be carried out.

Ex-soldier spared death penalty for Iraq murders
12 mins ago - An ex-soldier convicted of rape and murder in Iraq has been spared the death penalty and will get a life sentence after jurors couldn't agree unanimously on a punishment.

NM mom charged with killing son on the playground
39 mins ago - A mother playing with her children at a park spotted a little black sneaker sticking out of the sand underneath the playground
